Cover Story - "Matt" Gooch Grist Mill

Madison "Matt" was the second son of Jim and Elvira Gooch, mentioned several times in TGF. The mill served the community for a long-long time. Presumably first operated by Matt (possibly his father Jim.) and last by Matt's son Luther Gooch (1888-1962). The years each operated the mill is not known by the editor. The rock that ground corn into meal was powered by water hitting an undershot wheel beneath the mill. Luther however made later additions with a small over-shot wheel that in turn drove a pulley and belt to power a saw for making cuts of timber, mostly for firewood.

Jan.-Mar. 1993

Dear Member,

This is the third in the Vol. 2 of four issues. I have not taken the opportunity to do any research between two and three. I may get down to the local library here in Macon. Its very good for a regional public library. Georgia has several small libraries that were given beginnings from individual collections. One in Moultrie, Ga., that has a good information on Scottish clans. I still have not visited there. Then there is one in Homerville that is mostly families of southern Ga. One at Vidalia that is good on the southeastern states. And the University of Ga. in Athens, has an excellent historical and genealogical section. More than I have time to get around to for sure.

For your information and maybe our mutual benefit, I am involved with other surnames such as; Jordan, Todd, Brooks, Morgan, Walker, Wilkerson, Thomason, Murray, and of course Daniel(s). We, my sister mostly, has just noticed a parallel with our Murrrays going from NC to the same county in TN as in Alex Haley's "Roots" Murrrays. Our direct descendant did not own slaves, but a related uncle did. Oh well, a 'White Roots' version probably would not show my ancestors in too good of light.

The Gooch line is my wife's mother's line and her father was a Todd. On that line the 'ole folks' say there is a connection to Mary Todd Lincoln. It would not be direct, but I am working on that. I have learned that Abe was not necessarily that poor. Most everyone of his day lived in a log cabin. And there was no available light to read by except fire, at night. Lincoln's father moved his family from Kentucky to Indiana because he did not believe in slavery. That history is well documented.

I want to say again, the best source of new subscribers is through your connections. However, I have lost more than I have gained from Vol. 1 to Vol 2. Please continue to tell your kinfolks about The Gooch Family. If you as a subscriber would like to place a copy in a local genealogical library, and you are willing to deliver it, just give me a little basic information. Name of Library (it must have a genealogical section) address, and person in charge of genealogical division. When I mail your issue, I will include one for the library. That way there will be no extra mailing for me. This is not very feasible if you have to make a special trip to deliver. You could take it when you are going to the library. I mailed complementary copies of the last issue to the Archives in Austin, TX and to Public Libraries in Houston and Dallas.

Renewals for Volume 4 are being accepted. Thanks to those who have already renewed. Texas continues to have the largest number of subscribers outside of Georgia. Thanks to all for your participation in the newsletter. I really do appreciate the many accolades received from you. In addition, please keep sending information on your Gooches. Several subscribers still have not given me their Gooch connection. Not necessary, but I would like to know what you are looking for. For some of you it is a lone female several generations back. There may not be an answer, but we will not know until we have given it a good try. I am cataloging everyone's Gooch connection. That way, I will be able to group those with like research problems.

Please make known any information that is not published or available in libraries. I would still like Bible records and other family information, even if it is in published form. However Bible records and even that in stone, are sometimes in error. I know cases of both. When this is known, it should be noted. I know my Mother recorded some of my children wrong in her Bible.

Let me hear from you. Please.
Sincerely, Editor.

Editor's comments on items on page 47.

This research by Jann is, in part, her response to running her FGR page 36-37 on last issue. I have reproduced the page as she submitted it with exception of item numbers, which were added by your editor.

Item #1. is the oldest by dates listed. Would like any response from anyone having more information on this couple.

Item #2. refers one back to item #9. I would assume that the incomplete date in #9 is 9-11-1850. Working with the birth date of Rowland Gooch in #9 (22 April 1778) that would put his death Aug. 29, 1850, that would be 74, 4 mon., and 7 days. See also below, original bill, Pet. dated 7 Mar 1853, page 280, Madison Co. Ala. record.

Item #11 the date 1818 must be a typo; should be 1881, since #5 gives his death in 1883. Died a young man in Hope AR leaving a wife and babe.

Item #5, #11, and #12 are the same Rowland A. or R.A., however must not a son of Rowland in #2 and #9, since he is not mentioned in the petition in item #2. Item #12 states he leaves a widowed mother, brothers and sisters. In item #2, you cannot assume William M. is a son but other evidence shows William M. Gooch is a son of Rowland who was referred to as William in one instance. See Pet. Book 1, pg. 507, following page.

Madison Co. Alabama

Page 280. Original Bill dated 7 March 1853. Ellen Dublin by her next friend William Rowe; she states she is the wife of James Dublin and daughter of Rowland and Elizabeth Gooch. Rowland Gooch departed this life intestate in the year 1850; William M. Gooch is his admin. Elizabeth Gooch, mother or oratrix, resides in Madison Co. Ala., at the residence of her late husband, Rowland Gooch, with said William M. Gooch. Said Elizabeth and William M. Gooch hav in their possession about 14 slaves derived from the estate of William McGehee, late of Louisa County, VA., under his last will and testament proved and recorded in said County of Louisa. Said Eliza wishes to divide the slaves. Oratrix's husband. James Dublin whom she married in the year 183? is involved in debt; she asks that she be made feeme sole. Deposition of Elizabeth Gooch dated 30 May, 1853, states as to relationship to complainant, "She is my dughter." "She married James Dublin." "I think it was about the year 1825." "They three children born of such marriage, Wesley M. Dublin aged about 25 years, Martha S. Blackburn, about 24 years and Mary E. Dublin about 20 years." States her husband's name was Rowland Gooch and that he died at his residence in Madison Co., Ala., in August 1850, his administrator is William M. Gooch. "William McGehee was my father--he died about the year 1819." The desposition of Louisa C. Bailey states complainant "is my sister--she married in May, 1825." Deposition of WM. M. is the same. Decree is that complainant shall receive property as a feeme sole, free from debts, contracts or judgement of her husband's.

MORE ON ALABAMA GOOCHES

Editor's note: in the items below, the Rowland Gooch mentioned in item #9 page 47 is mentioned here as William. Then on line 4, 'Since dead (death) of R. Gooch said WM Gooch has died leavingetc. These items below establishes William M. (his executor) as his son. It is noted that debt and other things have prevented the selling of Rowland Gooch's property for 18 years. For one thing the Civil War took place and slaves were freed thus eliminating that part of the will. With two children dying, including William M. the executor, complicated things even more. Editor.

Cover story cont'd from page iii inside cover.

Some years after his wife died, Luther sold the farm on which the mill stood, to Cardwell C. and Elsie Todd Baker of Atlanta. Elsie being a sister to the editors father-in-law and aunt to his wife, Elsie. During a period of Winter 1954 to Fall 1957 the editor and wife Elsie lived with Elsie's parents and farmed with them. During that time they (we) repaired the mill and raceways, putting the mill into running condition. There was not a great deal of interest in grinding corn or other grains so the mill sat idle most of the time. During the 70's and 80's when the Todd's no longer lived near the mill, it fell victim of vandals. Any thing of value was removed or burned. Even the mill stones are no longer there.

The cover picture was furnished by: Gerald D. Massey, Blanchard, LA through his mother Vassie Gooch, whose g.grandparents were Jim and Elvira G. Gooch.

The picture of the mill on this page is how it looked during the 60's-70's after it was put into operation for the last time. Picture taken by Bill Holt, a Meth. Minister from Dahlonega, a friend of the Todds and Daniels.

Note: The editor would like to hear from anyone who has information on where and when Gooches and others lived in the area of the map. Would also like to know of other places off the map where Gooches and related families lived. Also collecting stories of life in the montains, during those early days.
Let me hear from you. JCD

LETTER FROM EDDIE WILSON

17 Feb. 1993

Hi,

I research Thomas Gooch b. 1788, who married Annie Gillentine and has first son John Gillentine Gooch b. 1809 of McNairy Co. Tn.

To my knowledge no one has ever found them behind the 1830 McNairy Co. Tn. census.

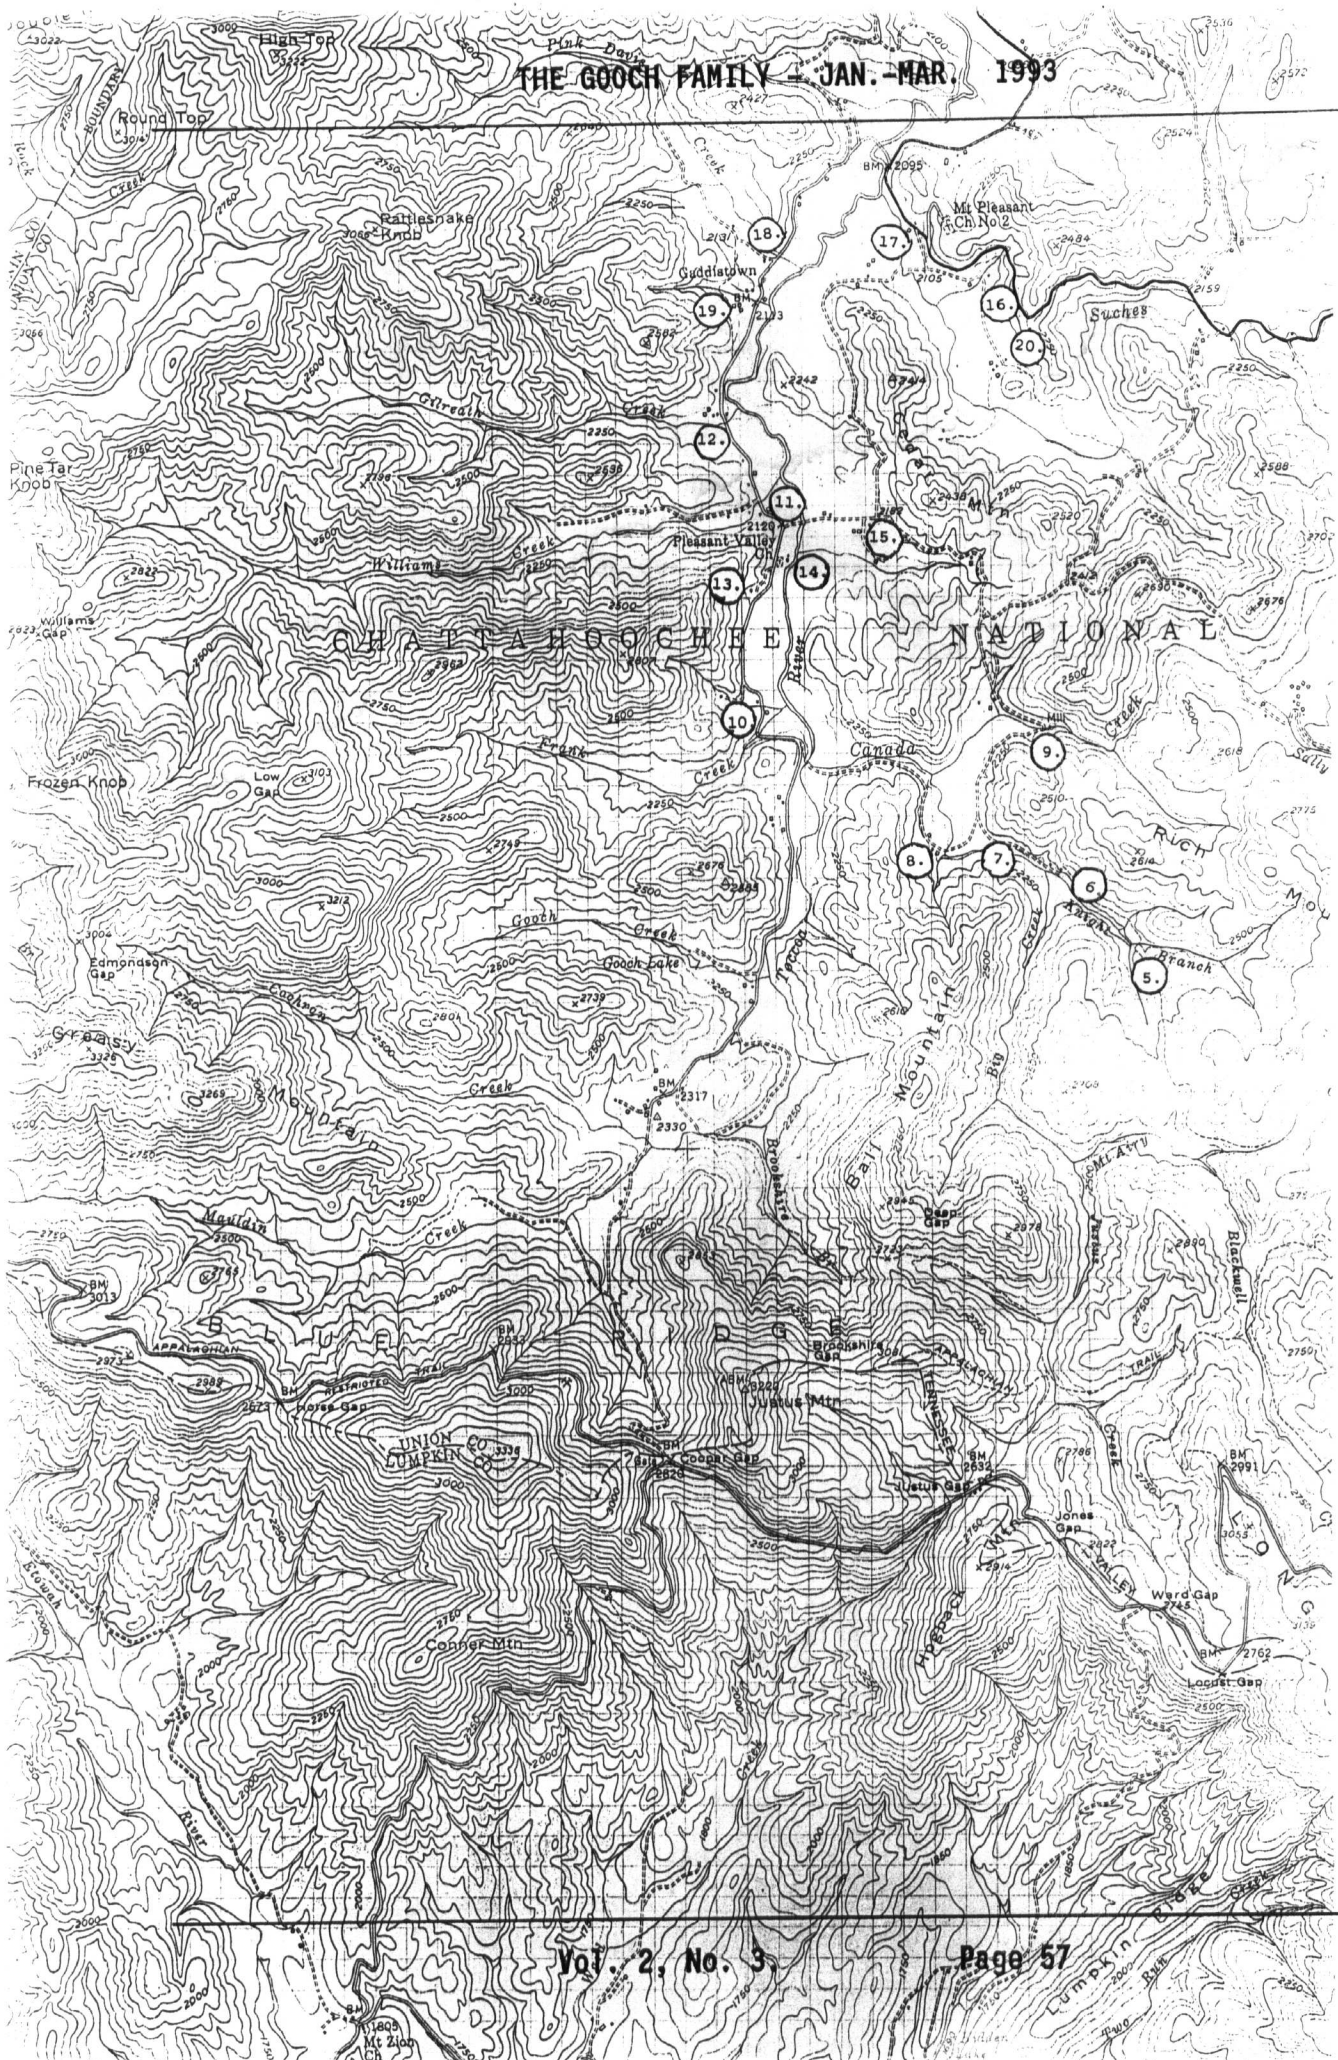

I'm sure that I have ! He is listed as Thomas Gouge on the 1820 White Co. Tn. census page 354. Annie Gillentine's brother Nicholas Gillentine is listed on the same page. 1830 both are in McNairy Co. Tn.

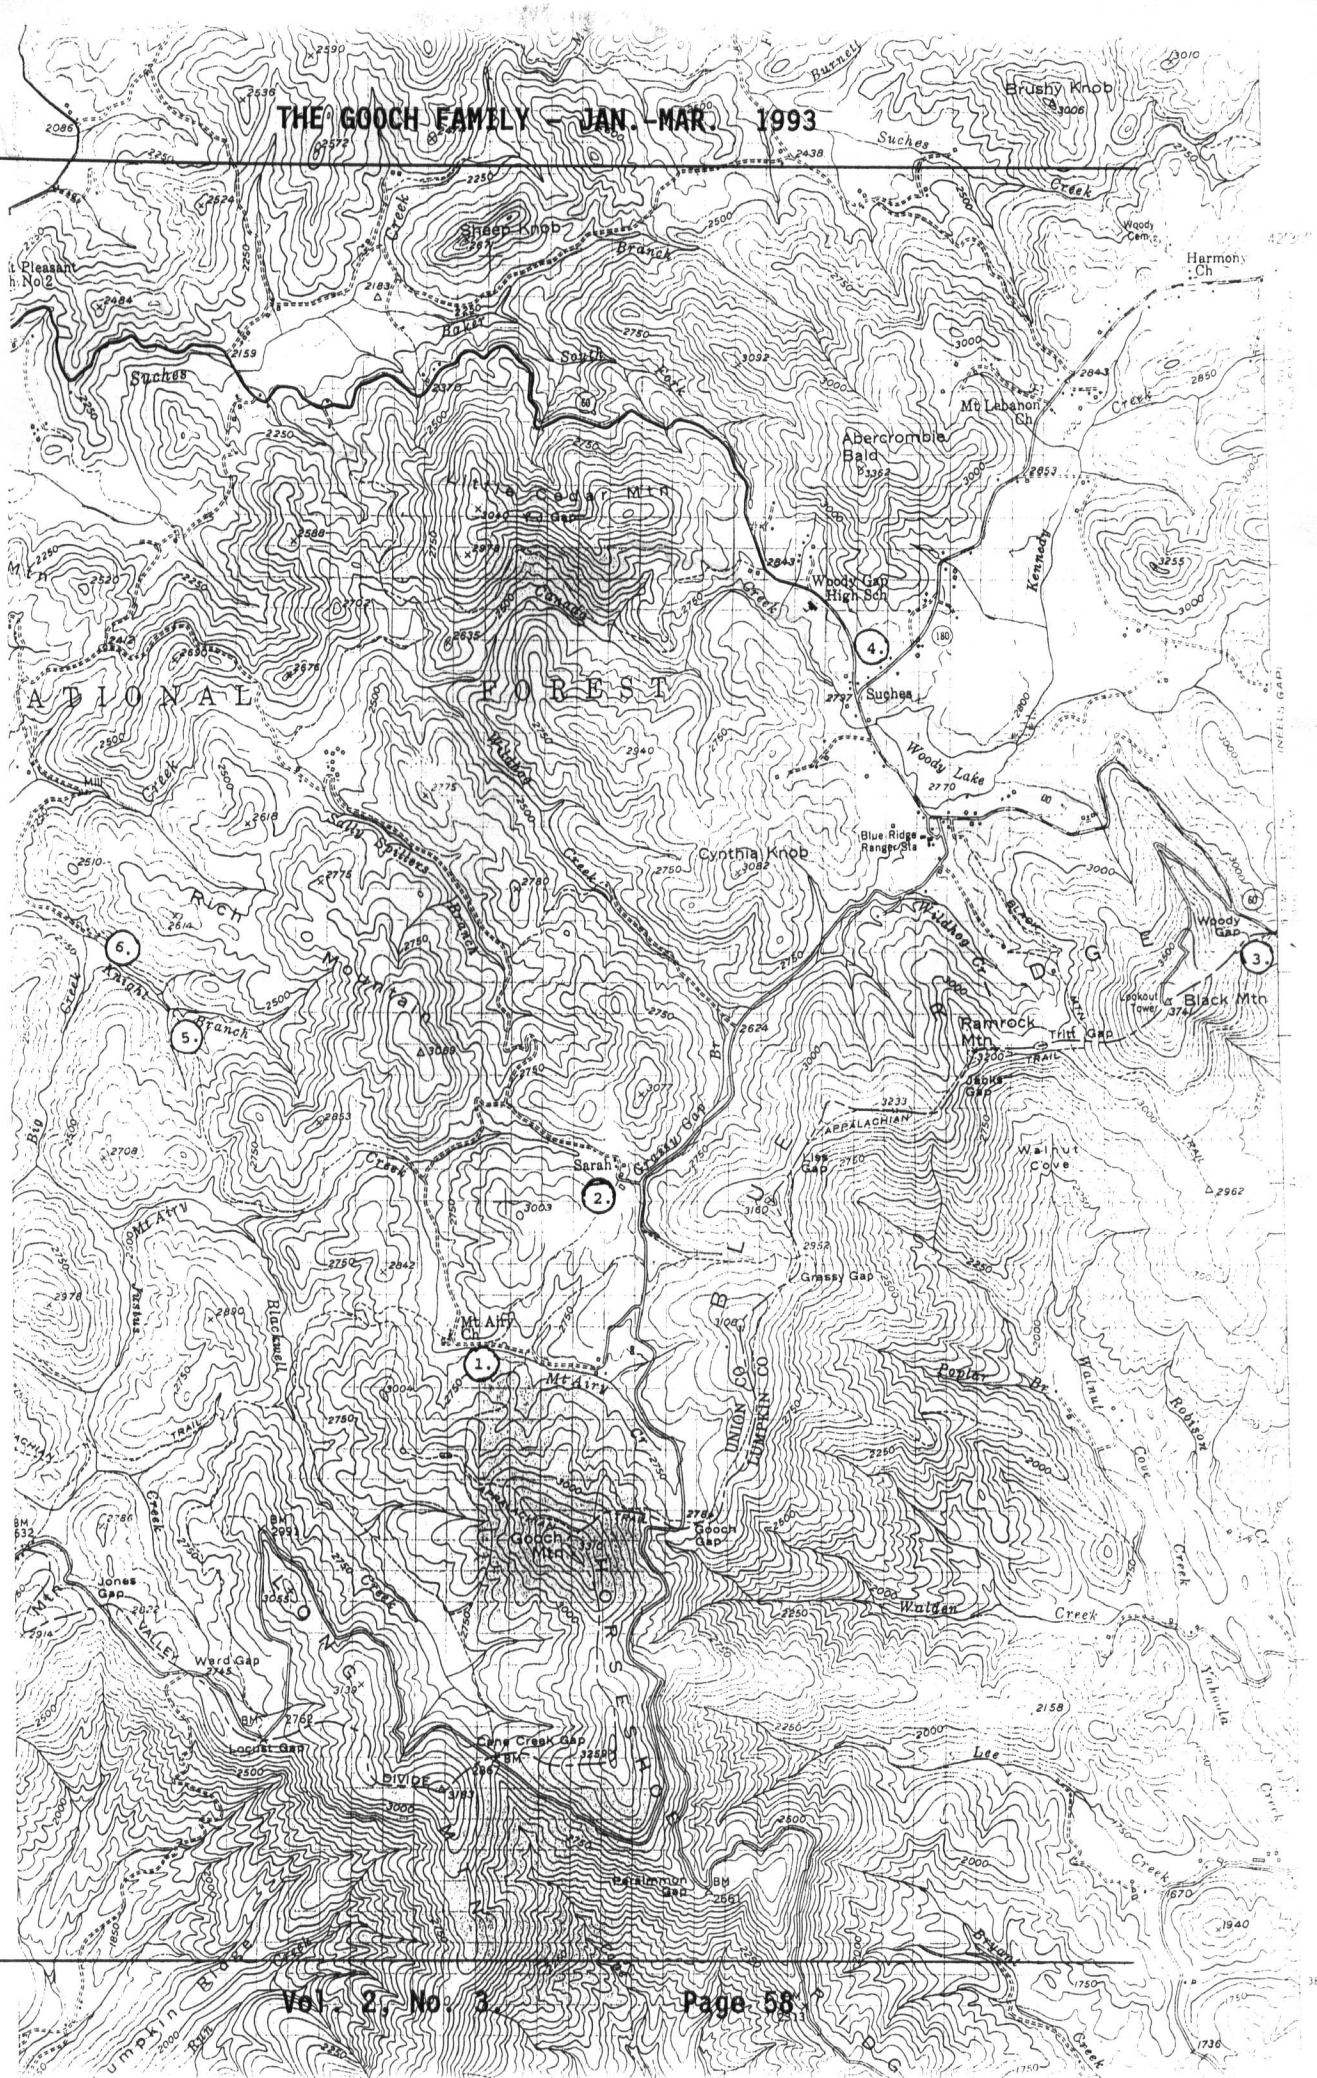

I also have court records court records tax Book A 1811
Capt Issac Privet's Company Thomase Goudges - 1 white poll .12 1/2 State tax
.37 1/2 Co. tax
amt. .50

18 Nov 1812 Thomas Gouge appointed juror.

I know there are other people who want this info. Thanks.

Dear Cecil,

I have received the first four issues of your Gooch Newsletter and I wish to thank you for your efforts in this venture. I published a family book on the Belknap family covering the descendants of my great grandfather. I understand and sympathize with you because I know some of the problems you face as well as the satisfaction you enjoy doing this work.

My connection to the Gooch family is through my wife's lineage. Her grandfather was George Washington Gooch. He was the eighth child of Liner Dixon Gooch and Lucinda Stevens Gooch. I am enclosing a family sheet for each of G. W. Gooch's marriages. I would appreciate your placing a query in your newsletter on my behalf. I am seeking to contact any descendants of George Washington Gooch's first marriage. I have been unable so far to locate any of their families.

I have been in contact with Maxine Dark in Hardy, Ar. concerning her submission of the family sheet for Liner Dixon Gooch that appeared in Vol. 1, No. 2. Her research has been more extensive than my own in this matter. However we have decided that the eleventh child of Liner Dixon Gooch should be Smith Gooch and not Richard. You might want to make that correction in your database.

I am enclosing a check for my renewal. Thanks again for your efforts in publishing this newsletter. Some family newsletters are nothing but rip offs. It is refreshing to find one that is truly helpful.

Sincerely,

Jerry Belknap

Catching-up from letter (in part) of Nov. 1991 from Archie Holmes.

In re. your query #10: "Marriages of Some Virginia Residents - 1607-1800" (Wulfack) says "Thomas Avent m. Margaret Elizabeth Gooch, dau of Claibourne Gooch. Orange III p. 160." This must have been Claibourne, son of Wm and Ursula. I have written down a note, from where I know not, that Thomas Avent was a Huguenot, b. 1661, to Virginia 1698, d. 31 Oct. 1787. No date for a marriage. Margaret Elizabeth was not the dau. of Sir Wm. Gov of Virginia and Sir William was not married to Ursula Claibourne, as you probably already have discovered. -----from a letter by: Archie L. Holmes, 453 Leif Erickson Ave., R.D. 1, Princeton, New Jersey 08540

Thanks, Editor.

KIN HUNTERS (Genealogical Quarterly)

I was contacted by Sonny Vanderpool, editor and publisher of Kin Hunters about a quarterly swap. He does reviews of other newsletters and published genealogical information on all names, mainly in the Kentucky counties of, Butler, Christian, Logan, Mulenberg, Simpson, Todd, and Warren. If you have missing relatives in that area, you might want to write him. I have one copy of Kin Hunters. It is 50 pages long and contains, queries, book reviews, and much genealogical info. Also lists census and other abstracts for sale.
